U.S. ARMY HISTORICAL DIRECTORY

2009

U.S. ARMY CENTER OF MILITARY HISTORY
COLLINS HALL, BUILDING 35
103 THIRD AVENUE
FORT MCNAIR, DC 20319-5058

PREFACE

The 2009 edition of the Army Historical Directory continues the basic format of previous editions. Included are the professional staffs of Army historical offices, active and reserve component museums, the historical offices within the Department of Defense, allied and unified commands, and several defense-related federal agencies with historical offices. At the end of this directory the user will find a listing of the official repositories for many Army records, an index of Army personnel listed in the directory, and an index of Army personnel by subject matter expertise. Although the format remains constant from previous editions, there are numerous changes in the content. An online edition will also be posted on the Army's AKO website.

Where the information was supplied or readily available from other sources, the Directory's compiler included complete mailing addresses for each history office and museum facility, plus Defense Switched Network (DSN) telephone numbers, commercial telephone numbers (both voice and facsimile (FAX) numbers), and electronic-mail (e-mail) addresses. Some agencies have their own web sites, which also are included.

The Army Historical Directory will begin to age soon after publication. Personnel will relocate, telephone numbers will change, and agencies will be reorganized. The compiler has tried to ensure that all addresses and telephone numbers are accurate. He has been equally meticulous in trying to spell individual names correctly and to identify all individuals by their correct title. Yet, in an imperfect world, certain inaccuracies are inevitable, and for such errors the Center accepts complete responsibility.

All offices cited herein received at least one copy of this publication. Additional copies (in either hard copy or electronic format) may be requested by contacting Dr. Gary Trogdon at DSN 325-3572 or (202) 685-3572. If you have any changes to your information, please contact Dr. Trogdon at the following: U.S. Army Center of Military History, ATTN: AAMH-FPR (Dr. Gary Trogdon), 103 Third Avenue, Fort McNair, DC 20319-5058; or by email to: gary.trogdon@us.army.mil.

SUBJECT INDEX

Listed below are some of the official and unofficial fields of study that were reported by individuals within the Army historical community. In the interests of space and simplicity, some categories were consolidated. Users of this subject index should refer to specific entries in the body of this directory if searching for more specialized fields. Individuals claiming a chronological or topical specialty in the history of the United States Army were included in the larger heading of U.S. Army History. No attempt was made to authenticate the level of expertise that individuals claimed in specific fields.
